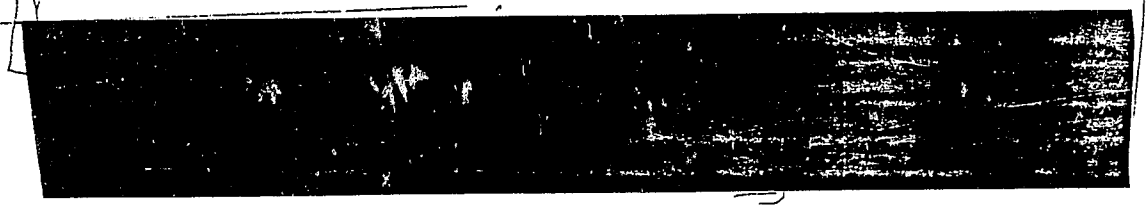
DEPARTMENT OF STATE A/CDC/MR
REVIEWED BY DPS DATE 4/28/78
EXCISIONS DENIED AS EXEMPTED

DECLASSIFIED



The Secretary then said he would further consider proposals he already had under review to strengthen the standing of our Permanent Representative, and where feasible, to furnish the Council fuller information regarding the reasons for U. S. political actions.

The morning session closed on an amicable note. I think von Brentano and Krekeler were probably content with what must have been Blankenhorn's discomfiture.

We lunched with Ethel Fowler, and I went to the airport at 4 p. m. to see the German delegation take its departure.

E and I dined happily with Lutie and Pinky Thompson across the street.

It is a joy to be back in our own house, well preserved for us by the invaluable "Miss Schu".

Monday, November 25, 1957

To the State Department at nine o'clock, after E had cooked a delicious breakfast. A round of meetings. The same routine all day. Tonight, E having a bad cold, I dined at Kay Halle's with the Walter Lippmanns, Jean Lambert, Al Kornfeld, and many another.

DECLASSIFIED